

Wide Dimension is a DJ and producer from Slovenia who has been passionate about electronic music since childhood. He plays groovy House and Tech House tracks with powerful basslines and touches of Techno. He began producing his own music in 2010 and started DJing shortly after.

He first got the chance to perform at F-Club in Ljubljana. Since then, he has been playing at various clubs and festivals across Slovenia. Wide Dimension has shared the stage with many artists, including Boris Brejcha, Mike Vale, Alex Ranerro, Tomy DeClerque, and Waitz.

Wide Dimension also started his own events called Wide As It Gets. These events don't focus solely on House music but cover a variety of genres, ranging from Bass House, Deep House, and Tech House to Hardgroove Techno. The events quickly gained recognition among fans of electronic music.
