

LowlighLotus is the second artistic persona of a DJ and producer from Slovenia, known for exploring the deeper realms of electronic music. With a longstanding passion for soundscapes that evolve and pulse through the night, LowlighLotus blends the hypnotic vibes of Techno with driving basslines and intricate rhythms. This side of the artist delves into the more atmospheric and darker side of the genre, while still maintaining a groove that makes the dancefloor move.

While his journey into music began back in 2010, where he initially experimented with various electronic styles, LowlighLotus is his most recent exploration into the world of techno. Drawing inspiration from the underground, he crafts sets that resonate with raw energy and deep, immersive layers, allowing listeners to lose themselves in the moment.

LowlighLotus has graced the stages of renowned Slovenian venues and festivals, showcasing his craft alongside international talent. Whether playing at intimate clubs or larger-scale events, the name LowlighLotus is quickly becoming synonymous with a fresh, cutting-edge Techno sound that keeps evolving with every track.

For LowlighLotus, it's not just about the music - it's about creating an experience, one that transports listeners into an ever-expanding sonic universe.
